

ALLE Activities August: Report for Departmental Meeting, 1 September 2008

ALLE Events

The next ALLE Seminar will be presented by Dr Sandra Hale on Wednesday, 10th September, in W5C 221, at 12 noon. The title is: "What do they think of me? The perceptions of interpreters held by medical and legal practitioners."

The second ALLE Research Student Seminar will be on 15 October in the Linguistics Seminar Room from 2-4.30. The focus of the seminar is on data collection and analysis.

Conferences

The major conference in August was the AILA Conference in Essen, Germany, 24-29 August. ALLE members presenting at AILA were Anne Burns, Christopher Candlin, David Hall, Wendy Noble, Helen Slatyer. Macquarie's stand at the conference was the only one from a university and attracted a great deal of attention and interest in our programs.

Anne Burns was elected a member of the AILA Executive Board for three years from 2009. The next AILA conferences are in Beijing in 2011 and Brisbane in 2014.

Publications

Book chapters

C.N.Candlin (in press) Researching Diversity and Tolerance in Socio-Legal Contexts. In A.Wagner & V.K.Bhatia (eds) Diversity and Tolerance in Socio-Legal Contexts: Explorations in the Semiotics of the Law

Journal articles

V.K.Bhatia & C.N.Candlin (2008). International Commercial Arbitration Practices: A Discourse Analytical Study. Arbitration 74

Journals

Issue 22.2 of Prospect: An Australian Journal of TESOL, edited by Anne Burns and Helen de Silva Joyce is a special issue on workplace communication - available soon on the AMEPRC website. Go to <http://www.ameprc.mq.edu.au/resources/prospect>

HDRs

Cotutelle arrangements in discussion with University of Giessen, Germany.

Awards

Paul Moore, a student member of ALLE was a part of a team from the University of Wollongong who received a Carrick Award for Sustained work to collaboratively integrate contextualised academic integrity into curricula.

Anne Burns
1 September 2008

