

ALLE Activities: May 08

ALLE Events

Professor Inger Lindberg, University of Gothenburg, Sweden, presented a seminar on March 26 entitled Multilingual Sweden: Educational Perspectives.

A podcast of the presentation and her PPT are available on the ALLE website.

More events are to be announced for May and other events are being planned for 2008.

These will be posted soon on the website.

Conferences

ALLE was widely represented at a number of International Conferences in April.

Presentations by several ALLE Academic and HDR Student Members as follows:

AAAL Conference, Washington, DC: Anne Burns, Chris Candlin, David Hall, John Knox, Stephen Moore, Anna Phillips

TESOL Convention, New York: Anne Burns, David Hall, John Knox, Stephen Moore, Pamela McPherson

IATEFL Conference, Exeter: Anne Burns, David Hall, John Knox, Malcolm Sim

RELC, Singapore: Stephen Moore

Publications by ALLE Members in April

A review article on PhD/Doctoral theses in Australia by Burns, Paltridge and Wigglesworth, appears in the current issue of Language Teaching, published by CUP. There are numerous references in this issue of the journal to work carried out by members of ALLE, including a review of a recent book by Burns and de Silva Joyce.

The book, Language Teacher Research in Australia and New Zealand, edited by Anne Burns and Jill Burton (University of South Australia) was recently published by TESOL International. This is the fifth book in a series on language teacher research. There is a chapter in this book by Pamela McPherson, "Exploring student responses in an immigrant language program".

HDR Graduation

Mira Kim, a member of ALLE, graduated at the last Graduation Ceremony and gave the address on behalf of graduates.
