

THE MACQUARIE APHASIA SOCIAL CLUB
A.S.C.

Gain more social contact

Practice speaking

Pursue interests and hobbies again

The Macquarie University Speech Clinic has a social group for people with aphasia and their families, run by speech pathologists.

When: Tuesdays from 10 - 12.30

What: Adult education, social chat, aphasia support, guest speakers, community resource information

Programs: Gardening, Music, Art, Travel and Volunteering.

Groups: Groups for partners/relatives of people with aphasia will also be available, focusing on facilitating conversation with their family member who has aphasia.

Cost: $30

Please contact Macquarie University Speech Clinic on 9850 1450 for further information.